INTERESTED IN SCHOOL-BASED THERAPY?

Children spend the majority of their waking hours in school. When emotional or behavioral problems get in the way of learning, Renaissance is there to provide the support they need to succeed.

OUR SCHOOL-BASED THERAPY INCLUDES:

- Individual and group therapy
- Family counseling
- Medication Management
- Risk assessments, as needed (suicidal or homicidal)
- Case Management

OUR STAFF

Our RBH staff members are credentialed to provide services based on their degree and knowledge in social work, counseling or psychology. These creative professionals' partner with teachers, school administrators and parents to develop individualized treatment plans and behavioral interventions for students.

OUR PROGRAM

Our program also includes home visits, teacher consultations, and individual and family counseling. When a therapist identifies a need that goes beyond the scope of the school environment, the child may be referred to receive other Renaissance programs or community services, in addition to their School-Based therapy.

REFERRALS

Teachers, guidance counselors, principals, providers or parents may refer students for these services. To make a referral contact Renaissance Behavioral Health at 440-606-2003
